G&R / VISUAL IDENTITY EDITION / 2026

A familiar foundation.

The G and R sit within a column-like structure.

The complete original compound path is retained from the SVG archive.

A solid colour treatment keeps its fine lines clear and controlled.

New typography gives the identity a calmer, more measured voice.

A NEW EDITION BY DAY OF DESIGN

Source: 25 original 2023 client design files.

Original column emblem retained; typography and applications refined in 2026.

Old contact details, credentials and performance claims are not carried forward.

The new stationery and digital applications are design concepts.

Client adoption, printing and launch of the new work are unconfirmed.
