Connection, considered.

Two voices, one rhythm.

The complete original gold identity anchors both posters.

Serif headlines and Chinese typography share measured spacing.

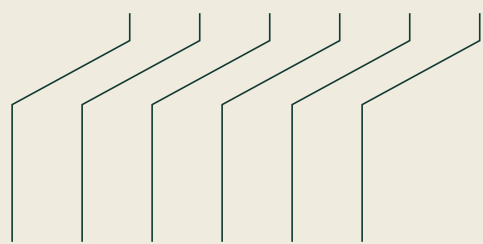

The new angled-line motif connects the surrounding layouts.

Connections in detail.

CORRESPONDENCE / DESIGN EDITION 2026

Correspondence in balance.

A folder and letterhead establish a calm document system.
Open space gives the identity and each line of content room.
The letterhead is a blank layout study, not a business letter.

Across paper formats.

THE ORIGINAL ARCHIVE

Twenty source files: identity deliverables, cards and proposals.

The final-logo PDF provides the complete gold identity.

All source paths, gradients, clipping and lettering are retained.

Earlier proposals remain separate from the selected final files.

The original business card also carries Creations By Nature.

This edition presents JingXin as its own visual case.

THE NEW EDITION

New 2026 theme, typography, line motif and paper applications.

Archival contacts and roles are not republished as current facts.

Reference photographs and old mockups are not reused.

AI-assisted scenes illustrate proposed material applications.

Client adoption and physical production remain unconfirmed.
